Sunday, January 8th

1-5pm

River Falls, WI

This four-hour workshop is designed to help people who are seeking practical, common sense information on whether farming is the next step for them. In this workshop you will assess your resources, skills and motivations for farming; plan your educational path toward farming; learn about regional training opportunities and support networks and prioritize your next steps.

Cost of workshop is $20 for Land Stewardship Project members and $40 for non-members. Pre-registration is required. For more information and to register contact:
